ACP 2012 & ACERP 2012
Letter of Welcome

Dear Delegates,

Welcome to the Second Annual Asian Conference on Psychology and the Behavioral Sciences, which is again to be held this year alongside the Second Asian Conference on Ethics, Religion and Philosophy. We are delighted to report that the event has grown considerably since last year, when attendance was notably affected by the March 2011 earthquake and its aftermath, and are equally proud to contribute to, and participate in Japan's recovery.

IAFOR conferences are interdisciplinary international conferences that invite academics, practitioners, scholars and researchers from around the world to meet and exchange ideas.

These joint conferences encourage us to reflect upon how we think, as well as reason, believe, and behave, under the simple but powerful theme of 'Trust'. The conference theme is an important one to all delegates, whether engaged in the study of science, philosophy or religion, and is no doubt in part the reason that this conference has attracted more than two hundred and fifty delegates from across the globe. Over these few days we will consider the question and concept of 'Trust' from the perspective of scholars, policy makers, educators, therapists, medical doctors, patients, priests and charity workers, and using the lenses of science, religion and philosophy to search for common ground.

The programme for this conference promises to be an exciting one, with thematic topics that address the central aim of the conference in different but complementary ways, including through papers that draw on empirical research, that develop theoretical and conceptual insights, and that engage with pedagogy, and the experiential. The conference will be enhanced through its wide variety of presenters, who will draw on their diverse experiences and knowledges and on their academic, personal and geographical contexts, in a programme that promises stimulating and challenging discussion.

I have no doubt that we will all be able to use the time spent at this conference for intellectual discovery and for the development of collaborative links and connections between the researchers, academics, scholars and practitioners who are attending. We have a lot to learn from each other in this international academic forum.

Warm Regards,

Dr Joseph Haldane,
Executive Director, IAFOR

ACP 2012
Letter of Welcome

Dear Colleagues and Friends,

On behalf of the International Academic Forum, we would like to welcome you to the Asian Conference of Psychology and the Behavioral Sciences 2012, on this conference theme of “Trust”.

The Asian Conference of Psychology and the Behavioral Sciences is in its second year, and invites participants from various schools and disciplines to share research, knowledge and experiences across cultures within the framework of humanity. We certainly realize that a number of aspects of human behavior are beneficial for the preservation of life and cultural heritage, and “trust” is among them. We certainly cannot build interpersonal relations without trust, and trust is the important aspect that bonds human relations across cultures and nations.

We are delighted to have received a large number of paper submissions to be presented at the conference, and I am confident that there will be many interesting topics to discuss, as well as many topics that may initiate participants to conduct further research, and perhaps collaborative research across institutions, nations, and disciplines.

I would also like to welcome you to the Kansai region, and to encourage you to explore its remarkable culture and cuisine. May your days in Japan be pleasant and memorable, and we hope to see you return to other IAFOR conferences in the near future, and in the years to come.

Best Regards,

Dr Monty P. Satiadarma

IAFOR Academic Vision & Mission

The vision of iafor grew out of the perceived need to fill a vacuum in the communication and exchange activities of the academic world. Its mission arose out of examining that space and investigating why it existed. The vacuum existed because of the lack of opportunity for serious and thoughtful exchange between academics, members of the global business community, and practitioners in the fields of human endeavor that linked these groups together. In the field of education, for example, we have academic theorists, educational managers (political decision-makers and organizational directors) and classroom teachers with their support staff in IT, library work, exchange programs, and specialist fields. But how often do they have the opportunity to interact?

Moving beyond one particular field, larger questions arise. What function should universities prioritize in the 21st century? What do businesses see as their contribution to social and global well being? How can people on the ground, trying to implement improvements that will transform human life, best be supported? And perhaps above all, what are the agendas that will drive mechanisms to enable these groups to interact effectively.

One piece of distilled thought that came from early exchanges at an iafor conference was the recognition that some of the rhetoric of concern about the problems of developing nations was perhaps over-focused on the term "poverty" because it can be defined only in a relative way. "Hunger" was put forward as being more immediate and itself a contributory factor to poverty, rather than the other way round. One key to the hunger issue could be the provision of safe drinking water, or water for irrigation in some contexts, while flood management might be necessary elsewhere. These, in and by themselves become valuable only insofar as they help to relieve hunger in specific contexts.

iafor is affording opportunities that do not exist elsewhere. The base is Osaka, Japan's great commercial and manufacturing hub, one symbol of the emerging Pacific economy that in time will eclipse the long dominant Atlantic zone. iafor conferences present those taking part with three unique dimensions of experience. First of all, it encourages interdisciplinary activity to be expanded. Depending on the field, this can face varying degrees of difficulty, ranging from discouragement to downright prohibition. Those overly dependent on fixed academic structures often see lateral thinking as a threat. None of these negatives apply in iafor. Its purpose is to generate new approaches that cross any disciplinary lines. The principle employed is to let the imagination permit intuitive responses to questions. There are no panels of critics. There are simply people who want to listen and reflect. The model of academic work as potholing is replaced by the metaphor of mountaineering. While respecting the need for solid and well-founded academic work, we feel the need to go beyond it from time to time to discover fresh approaches to old questions.

Secondly, it facilitates the heightening of intercultural awareness. Again, iafor encourages innovation through cross-cultural perception. Cultural roots influence people in their attitudes more than most would realize or admit. The need to see and internalize insights gained from other viewpoints is met by a process of steady illumination.

Thirdly, it promotes the broadening of international exchange. We may live in a globalized world, but in reality parochialism still holds sway. The collapse of the U.S.S.R and the break-up of Yugoslavia led to the re-establishment of numerous former countries. While this may be desirable for the peoples concerned, it merely adds to the world's cultural confusion. Exchange leads to explanation and that helps the growth of intercultural awareness.

iafor makes all of these developments possible in one gathering. An iafor conference is not a substitute for specialist conferences. It is intended to be an alternative that functions as a balance or even a corrective to the extreme tendencies that can arise from more narrowly defined research parameters. In short, iafor is promoting and facilitating a new multifaceted approach to one of the core issues of our time, namely globalization and its many forms of growth and expansion. Awareness of how it cuts across the worlds of business, and academia, along with its impact on societies and institutions is one of the driving forces that has given iafor its momentum and is making it a pioneer in this global age.

Order of the Sacred Treasure, M.A. (Hons), B.D., Ph.D., F.R.A.S.

General Information for Conference Participants

Information and Registration

The ACP/ACERP Registration and Information Desk will be situated in the Kiku base room on the second floor of the hotel throughout the conference. If you have already paid online, or by bank transfer, you will be able to pick up your registration pack. This will include a tote bag, the ACP/ACERP 2012 programme, and your official certificate of attendance and receipt of payment (on the same sheet). At this time you will also be given a name card, and lanyard.

For those people wishing to pay on the day, please note that we will not be able to process credit cards.

Conference Opening and Featured Speaker Session: Saturday 9:00-12:00

The Plenary session will be held on Saturday morning, with the event beginning at 9:00 in the Sakura Function Room (Next to the Kiku base room on the second floor). Please arrive in good time if you wish to attend the session.

There will be an interval after the first address and complimentary refreshments and light snacks will be served, as they will twice daily throughout the conference.

Concurrent Speaker Sessions

Concurrent Sessions will run on Saturday afternoon and on Sunday until 18:00. They are generally organized into streams. Sessions are usually 90 minutes in length, and normally include three presenters. Each presenter has thirty minutes including Q and A time. Exceptionally there may be four presenters to a session, and the session length is increased accordingly (Sunday session 2 only).

Presentations and Equipment

All rooms will be equipped with a MacBook computer pre-installed with Powerpoint, as well as a screen and an LCD projector. If you wish you may directly link your own PC laptop, although we advise you to use the computer provided by plugging in your USB. We recommend that you bring two copies of your presentation in the case that one fails, and suggest sending yourself the presentation by email as a third and final precaution.

Session Chairs

Session Chairs are expected to introduce themselves and other speakers (briefly), and ensure that the session begins and ends on time, and that the time is divided fairly between the presentations (see below). Each presenter should have no less than 30 minutes in which to present his or her paper, and respond to any questions. We recommend 20 minutes for your paper and 10 minutes for Q and A. Please follow the order in the programme, and if for any reason a presenter fails to show, please keep to the original timeslots as delegates use the programme to plan their attendance.

A Polite Request to All Participants

Participants are requested to arrive in a timely fashion for all addresses, whether to their own, or to those of other presenters. Presenters are reminded that the time slots should be divided fairly and equally between the number of presentations, and that they should not overrun. The session chair is asked to assume this timekeeping role.

Poster Sessions & Poster Requirements

All Poster Sessions will be held in the Kiku base room.

The poster frames are B1 and so it is recommended that posters be no larger than B1 (707mm x 1000mm/27.8 inches x 39.4 inches). A1 (594mm x 841mm/23.4 inches x 39.4 inches) would also be fine. If your poster is oversized, then we will be able to provide double sided and normal tape.

Internet

There will be wireless connection throughout most of the second and third floors.

For your convenience, there will also be a limited number of computers wired up to the Internet in the Kiku base room.

Badges

When you check in, you will receive a conference package, which includes your name badge. Wearing your badge IS required for entrance to the sessions. If you lose your badge it can be replaced for a fee of JPY 5000. You must wear your badge at all times during the Conference.

If you are not wearing your badge, security will stop you and ask you to show your ID and evidence that you are registered. Those unable to show proof will be escorted from the Conference by security.

Patti Tamara Lenard

ACP 2012 Featured Speaker: Saturday 16:30-17:30 (Sakura Room)

Patti Tamara Lenard is Assistant Professor of Applied Ethics in the Graduate School of Public and International Affairs at the University of Ottawa, Canada. Lenard is deeply concerned with the role of trust in democratic political communities. In most contemporary democracies, high rates of immigration are increasing the number of religions, races, ethnicities and cultures living together and governed by shared political institutions. Her forthcoming book – Trust, Democracy and Multicultural Challenges (Penn State University Press, 2012) – places trust at the centre of democratic politics and then examines its relationship to diversity. In particular, she argues that ethno-cultural diversity as a result of increasing rates of immigration may, if managed improperly, generate distrust. She calls on democratic communities to generate purposefully the conditions under which trust between newcomers and ‘native’ citizens can be built, so that the quality of democracies is not compromised.
