Beginning in the second line of the first paragraph, the following text appeared:

“Of the disenrolling tribes, only the California Valley Miwok Tribe and the Cedarville Rancheria have IRA constitutions, but both tribes are likely statistical outliers. The California Miwok Tribe has a total of three citizens, one of whom the other two reportedly disenrolled (AIRRO, 2014). At Cedarville Rancheria in Modoc County, Cherie Rhodes, a former tribal chairperson, and her son, were ousted from their positions on the council...”

This was changed to:

“Of the disenrolling tribes, only the Cedarville Rancheria has an IRA constitution, but is likely a statistical outlier due to the tragic nature of the case. At Cedarville Rancheria in Modoc County, Cherie Rhodes, a former tribal chairperson, and her son, were accused of corruption and embezzlement and ousted from their positions on the council...”

Also on Page 58:

Near the end of the first paragraph, the following text appears:

“If the California Miwok Tribe and Cedarville Rancheria are excluded, the remaining disenrolling tribes do not have IRA constitutions.”

This should read:

“If the tragic example of Cedarville Rancheria is excluded, the remaining disenrolling tribes do not have IRA constitutions.”
