About IAFOR

Founded in 2009, The International Academic Forum (IAFOR) is a politically independent, non-partisan, and non-profit interdisciplinary think tank, conference organiser, and publisher. Based in Japan, its main administrative office is located in Nagoya and its research centre is in the Osaka School of International Public Policy (OSIPP), a graduate school of Osaka University. IAFOR runs research programmes and events in Asia, Europe, and North America in partnership with universities and think tanks and has also worked on a number of multi-sector cooperative programs and events, including collaborations with the United Nations and the Government of Japan.

IAFOR is comprised of three entities:

The IAFOR General Incorporated Association (Japan) operates as a social enterprise, registered as a non-profit entity under the laws of Japan.

The IAFOR Research Foundation is a private nonprofit foundation, registered in the State of California and a 501(c)3 organisation under US tax code.

The IAFOR Research Centre is housed in the Osaka School of International Public Policy (OSIPP) at Osaka University and the Centre’s funds are administered through Osaka University, a Japanese National University.
Conferences

Each year, IAFOR brings together thousands of academics and professionals worldwide through its interdisciplinary conferences, held both globally and online.

IAFOR has organised conferences in Tokyo, Osaka, Kobe, and Kyoto (Japan); London and Brighton (UK); Barcelona (Spain), Porto (Portugal), New York, Virginia, Rhode Island, and Hawaii (United States); Hong Kong (Hong Kong SAR), Singapore, Chiang Mai (Thailand), Bali (Indonesia), and Dubai (UAE).

Why Sponsor?

As a sponsor, your organisation will receive recognition for supporting the professional development of educators and academic researchers across the globe. Enhance your brand visibility among a far-reaching audience of academic researchers, education specialists, university deans, school heads, government officials from country ministries of education, and other academic researchers from around the world.

In this dynamic and globally connected world, our conferences, with a thematic focus encompassing Education, Arts, Media, and Culture, offer a unique opportunity to engage with a rich tapestry of ideas, cultures, and perspectives. It’s an ideal setting to explore interdisciplinary themes and collaborate with scholars from around the world.

Conferences are about starting quality relationships, and IAFOR conferences are no different. As a network, IAFOR strives to make our conference spaces as much about quality interaction as they are about research, because we know that bringing together professionals from different backgrounds often leads to groundbreaking solutions. An IAFOR conference might just be the place your organisation finds its next great partnership.

III. Scholarship Support

Scholarship Sponsor – Sponsor a Student or Early Career Academic

IAFOR is dedicated to helping young scholars from low- and middle-income countries achieve their research and academic goals, while also encouraging them to apply the principles of interdisciplinary study to their work.

Scholarship Sponsors help fund travel and accommodation grants and full or partial scholarships covering conference registration fees to PhD students and early career academics who might not otherwise have the financial resources to be able to attend our academic conferences.

The average cost of an onsite scholarship to support one presenter onsite is $3,000 (USD) and covers airfare, visa fees, meals and accommodations, and conference registration fees.

The average cost of an online scholarship to support one presenter online is $500 (USD) and covers conference registration fees.
